Death Toll Heavy

LOSS WILL TOTAL MANY MILLIONS

Entire Settlements Wiped Out in Northern Ontario

DEATH LIST MORE THAN 30

Blaze Continues, Fanned by Brisk Breezes

NORTH BAY, Ont., (Associated Press).—Forest fire refugees arrived here today from Hailyburg reported that between 50 and 100 persons had been drowned when they were crowded off a dock where they were trying to board a rescue ship.

OTTAWA, Ont., (Associated Press).—Forest fires raging in Northern Ontario and sweeping down the St. Maurice valley to Quebec have cost several lives, have destroyed six towns and threaten to leave many other razed towns in their wake of destruction unless rainfall comes soon to check the flames. Several score people are missing, property worth millions of dollars is destroyed and flames are still advancing.

North Lakeside was today added to the list of destroyed North Ontario towns.

NORTH BAY, Ont., (Associated Press).—The fear that upwards of thirty lives have been lost in the fire which is sweeping northern Ontario was expressed in the latest reports available from the affected and early today.

Soon after midnight George W. Lee, chairman of the Temagami and Northern Ontario railway issued this statement concerning the fire now raging in the north country:

Over five thousand people have been rendered homeless. The loss of life is considerable and is mounting. The towns of Hailyburg, North Cobalt, Charlton and Healeyburg are totally destroyed and the town of Lightfoot has been partially destroyed.

"Three trains with 24 cars containing 1,000 refugees have left Cobalt for North Bay. Other trains are being prepared as rapidly as possible."

LOSS REACHES MILLIONS
"The property loss will obviously run into millions of dollars. The fire is still burning briskly, fanned by a subsiding wind."

There is no prospect of rain and the fire will have to burn itself out.

The tracks at Hailyburg, North Cobalt, and Healeyburg were destroyed, the fire burned and the rails warped. It is impossible to run trains.

This is the hardest blow the north country has ever received."

TOWN WIPED OUT.
ST. PAUL, Minn., (Associated Press).—Over an area more than 100 miles square, scattered forest fires are blazing today in northern Minnesota. White forestry and state militia officials directed the fight to subdue them and hopefully prevent the fires from spreading.

Many small settlements are threatened by the flames, several are reported virtually wiped out, but there have been no casualties and none are looked for unless the wind attains exceptional velocity.

PLAGUE BREAKS
CONSTANTINOPLE.—Plague has broken out in Constantinople which is crowded with Christians who have come in from Asia Minor. Six cases were reported, of which four have proved fatal.

WEATHER FINE
NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Fair and warmer with skies slightly overcast in the early morning, but promising to be bright and sunny by game time was the weather prospect for the second game of the 1922 world series which will be staged at the Polo Grounds this afternoon.

THEY ARE CHARGED WITH FRAUD

Above are Mr. and Mrs. George Kraus, Pomeroys, who have been held in jail for several days, pending investigation of alleged "Ponzi" operations. They have broken their hunger strike.

Lima Fans See Series' Opener At News Party

Hundreds of Lima baseball fans watched the New York Giants rally in the eighth inning for a one run victory over the Yankees in the first game of the world series Wednesday afternoon, without leaving this city.

High-st west of The Lima News building to Main-st. formed a grandstand for followers of the sport who watched the ball and players in miniature form, reproduce meticulously, the game being played in New York as last as telegraphy could bring the details to this city.

The Lima News baseball board will be operated for the benefit of fans here, every afternoon that a world series game is played.

MINERS PREPARE THEIR DEMANDS

Six-Hour Day and Five-Day Week Are Included

CLEVELAND.—(United Press).—Continuation of the present wage scale and inauguration of the six-hour, five day week until 1925 will be demanded by the United Mine Workers of America, when the present wage agreement expires March 31, 1923.

Members of the miners policy committee took this action by reaffirming the demands of the February convention following adjournment of the "strike prevention" conference of bituminous operators and miners' representatives here. The miners also will demand time and a half for overtime and double time for Sundays and holidays.

These demands will be presented at the next "strike prevention" conference of operators and miners at Chicago November 14.

The action of the policy committee in reaffirming the wage demands of the last convention makes it unnecessary to hold another convention between now and next April.

The present wage scale for day labor in bituminous mines is $7.50 a day. This scale has been in effect since 1920. John L. Lewis, re-elected as president of the Miner's Union is said to be assured.

He is said to have received full support of approximately 1,650 locals for the nomination George Mercer, statistician for the Illinois miners were backed by 128 locals, it was said.

Philip Murray, vice-president, Pittsburgh, Pa., and William Green, secretary-treasurer, also are said to be sure of re-nomination. A few locals, it is said, proposed Alexander Howat for the vice-presidency. This could not be voted on, however, as Howat has been expelled from the union.

15 ARE BURNED
CHICAGO.—Fifteen persons—eight women and six employees of a cleaning fluid exploded during a fire. The explosion occurred when a tank of cleaning fluid exploded during a fire.

WHOLE FAMILY IS UNDER ARREST

Mrs. Kraus, Half Conscious, Not Aware of Developments

POMEROY.—(United Press).—The grand jury today began search for something like $200,000 that has disappeared from the pockets of Pomeroys residents.

One person, Mrs. Susan Kraus, 62 years old, could solve the mystery, but she lies half conscious on a cot in the county jail hearing nothing when one asks her what became of the money she is said to have borrowed from widows, orphans and others who were her friends.

"What did you do with the money, Mrs. Kraus?"

The deathlike figure on the cot gave no sign of hearing what had been said, nor of being conscious of the presence of a visitor.

"Where is the money?"

"Will you pay back?"

"How did you invest it?"

The face remained expressionless like the mask made after death and, indeed, except for the labored breathing, the covered figure seems dead.

She knows nothing of what has taken place since she has been in the cell, of the six charges of forgery that have been filed against her on top of the embezzlement charge; nor of the fraud charge that was made against her late yesterday; nor of the arrest yesterday of her son, Michael A. Kraus, until Monday a banker who is charged with forgery; nor of the arrest of her son, George Kraus, a Columbus telegrapher, held as a material witness.

Reside her cot sits George Kraus, 63, her husband, also a prisoner, charged with embezzlement. So the whole house of Kraus is under arrest, all overcome under the alleged collapse of the huge financial operations of the mother.

AGREEMENT NEAR AT CONFERENCE

Neutral Zone Will be Maintained Under Proposal

TURKS GAIN IN BARGAIN

Greek Protest Concession Made in Thrace

PARIS.—(Associated Press).—An agreement has been reached by the conference of allied and Turkish military leaders at Mudania and will be signed some time today, according to private despatches received here. The main lines of the agreement, says the Figaro are:

First—The British and Turks both to withdraw from the neutral zone on the southern shore of the Dardanelles, the British to Gallipoli and the Turks behind the line formed by the rivers Granicus and Skamander.

Second—The Turks agree that the allies remain in Constantinople during the peace negotiations on condition that Kemalist civil authorities are also installed there.

Third—The Greek army to evacuate Thrace within ten days. If the Greek government refuses to give the necessary orders, the allied fleets are to blockade the Greek ports and the Kemalist forces cross the Dardanelles and drive the Greek troops out of Thace.

The dispatches do not say whether the Greek representatives accept these conditions.

FORTS ARE BARRED
CONSTANTINOPLE.—(Associated Press).—According to telegrams from Turkish sources in Mudania, the agreement regarding the neutral zones reached by the allied and Turkish representatives provides that no fortifications shall be constructed on either side of the straits of the Dardanelles and that the military operations of the British in Turkey shall cease immediately.

LONDON.—(United Press).—The British cabinet was summoned to meet at 4:30 this afternoon, to hear General Hamilton's report of the Mudania conference where it is understood agreement was reached concerning war.

Officials were optimistic, expressing belief the war clouds on the Near East horizon have definitely been dispelled.

No official confirmation has been received here nor in Paris of a report that the protocol of a preliminary agreement has been signed at Mudania.

Former Premier Venizelos of Greece, called at the foreign office this morning and renewed an appeal that Greece be permitted to retain possession of eastern Thrace. His reception was said to have been "only lukewarm" he did not see Lord Curzon, foreign secretary. Officials emphatically denied a report that the British had agreed to evacuate Chanak.

CONSTANTINOPLE.—(United Press).—The Mudania peace conference apparently has achieved remarkable success in solving preliminary problems of the Near East.

Official announcement of the signing of a protocol providing for the return of the Turks to eastern Thrace coincidentally with their withdrawal in neutral zones near the straits, was momentarily expected here.

The way has been paved for a final conference at which Mustafa Kemal and allied leaders will agree on disposition of disputed Near East territory and the threat of a holy war removed.

The turning point at the secret parley at Mudania, came when allied representatives were convinced that the Turks genuinely desired to return to eastern Thrace for peaceful occupation of their former territory.

KEMALISTS CONCILIATORY
When they conceded a point the Kemalists representative became immediately conciliatory and agreed not only to withdraw their troops from the neutral zones east of the straits, but to the proposal that Turkish forces should not enter Thrace until after the final peace conference.

The allies are to remain in control of Thrace from which the Greeks will be requested to withdraw, until a sound Turkish administration can be set up. It is estimated this will take a month.

One stumbling block appeared today in the path of complete agreement, namely Greek opposition to the plan. Athos Venizelos at London and certain influential leaders at Athens have accepted the premise that Greece must give up eastern Thrace, a wave of artificial terror has swept many Greek extremists to the left.

SEARCH OF GRAVE IS PLANNED

Body of Slain Rector Will be Exhumed Today

SEEKING "GO-BETWEEN"

Letters of Mrs. Mills Shed Light on Mystery

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., (United Press).—Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, slain pastor, whose body, together with that of Mrs. Eleanor Mills, pretty choir singer, was found September 15, had $10,000 in negotiable securities in a safe deposit vault, ready to be converted into cash for a trip to Japan, the authorities disclosed today.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., (United Press).—The grave of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall was to be opened today in a search for evidence in the slaying of the pastor by the side of his pretty choir singer, Mrs. Eleanor Mills, whose body, with that of the minister, was found September 15.

While surgeons performed their autopsy, seeking a clue to the mysterious slaying, officials and state troopers were tracing a person who is believed to have been a "go-between" for the slain rector and his choir leader in their clandestine love affairs.

This person, it is believed, carried love missives back and forth between the couple and added them in maintaining secrecy.

Two letters yesterday gave support to the theory that jealousy was the motive of the crime. One letter, the last written by Mrs. Mills to the rector, exclaimed:

"Oh, for the time that I can do your bidding!"

It is thought the slayer found this letter in his secret repository in the ivy-clad church of St. John the Evangelist, where Mrs. Mills was accustomed to leave notes and suggestions for sermons for the rector.

After reading the letter and returning it to its repository, the slayer then went out to plan the killing, detectives believe.

The second letter written by Mrs. Mills to a Hindu magician in Miami Fla., sought advice as to whether an elopement to the Orient was advisable, "if the man gave up the other woman."

Another angle is the conviction that the person who killed the Rev. Hall, and Mrs. Mills was an expert shot. Authorities today were working on several new angles to the mystery. This conclusion has dismissed from suspicion also several persons who had been the subjects of inquiry by the investigators.

WAGE CUT ASKED

Bankers Recommend Reduction of Salaries, Freight Rates

NEW YORK.—(United Press).—A demand for a reduction in the wages of railroad employees and a cut in railroad rates was made by the economic policy committee of the American Bankers' Association to the convention here today.

The report expressed strong opposition to the soldier bonus. It advocated the repeal of those sections of the shipping laws, which "make it impossible for American shipowners to compete on an equal basis with other countries."

The Great Lakes St. Lawrence waterway was mentioned.

COAL FLEET HELD UP
GALLIPOLIS.—Fog last night stopped the Kanawha coal fleet on its way to Cincinnati, and permitted the artificial rise of the river on which the fleet was riding, to get away. The boats today are at Dams 28, 29 and 32. Two barges of coal which sunk will be saved. It was said.

DAVIS GOES EAST
COLUMBUS.—Governor Davis left Columbus last night for the Atlantic City, under orders of his physician, to recuperate from an attack of bronchitis, which has been troubling him for some time. Davis expects to return to his office within a week.

REPUBLICANS ON DEFENSIVE

Widespread Discontent With Administration Prevails, Cox Says

SPEAKS AT RICHMOND, IND

Root Drafted by G. O. P. Sure Sign of Predicament

RICHMOND, Ind. (Associated Press)—Evidence of discontent with the present national administration declared here by James M. Cox, Dayton nominee two years ago for the presidency on the Democratic ticket, speaking at a rally of Democrats.

In the coming congressional and senatorial campaign, he asserted, the administration, by the sheer force of events is placed on the defensive at the very outset. "Voters," he said, should consider the question of whether the legislative enactment, and administrative policies of the present regime can be regarded as the essentials of a square deal to their composite interests.

Drafting of Elihu Root by the Republicans as a speaker was regarded by Cox "as the surest sign of a grave situation insofar as it involves the administration."

ROOT FOR EMERGENCY
"One is neither personal or uncomplimentary in making the observation that many clients who go to Root are in a pretty tight hole," he former governor continued. "His services have been called by the old guard within his party upon many occasions when emergency is at hand."

Lining up the things, which he said are in the public mind, "namely the seating of Newberry, the granting of oil concessions to the group of the present administration, without regard to values involved, the scandals of the department of justice, the spineless attitude towards the problems of capital and labor, international policies which are ridiculed in every chamber in the world; the passage of a tariff law in behalf of certain privileged interests, whose selfishness and avariciousness have carried them to the very limits of trade dishonesty."

Cox asserted the Root group did not attempt to explain them.

Test what I made for you

I've spent a lifetime studying soap. This laboratory has spent 60 years perfecting soap. The leading toilet soap of the world—Palmolive—is one of our creations.

Now we have a shaving cream which excels all others in five ways. It is our pride. Be kind enough to test it for ten shaves.

Tried 130 times

This was a difficult problem. First, we asked 1,000 men what they wanted. Then we tried 130 times to meet those wants completely. It took us 18 months.

But now we have these things:
A soap that multiplies itself in lather 250 times.
A soap that acts in one minute. No finger rubbing, no hot towels, no waiting. Just apply it and go ahead.

A lather that maintains its creamy fullness for ten minutes on the face.

Bubbles that don't break. They keep the hairs parted while you cut them.

A soap that leaves the face in fine condition, because of palm and olive oils.

Bankers Country Over Spread Joy News

(BY R. G. FORBES)

NEW YORK.—(Special.)—It is the more interesting phases of the largest convention ever held by the largest financial association in the world, the annual pow-wow of 10,000 members of the American Bankers' Association which has a total membership of nearly 25,000.

For the first time in its history, New York has really warmed up to convention visitors and is covering itself with glory in the way of hospitality and entertainment, to the womenfolk as well as the men.

The wholesale exchanging of views and news among bankers from all parts of the country, and particularly the encouraging things being daily told New York bankers, is bound to prove most wholesome, helpful and stimulating.

It seems to be agreed that the only thing more needed than anything else now—apart from some semblance of tranquility abroad—is a change in the mental attitude of our agricultural and business population, to convince them that the storm and the clouds have passed and that cheerfulness, confidence and enterprise are now warranted.

Most of our heavyweight bankers are revealing—rather timidly—that they hope to do something by the holding of this convention to direct the minds of the public to necessity for action of some kind or other by and by, to modify the virtual deadlock over the allies' indebtedness to the United States. The preponderance of banking opinion here is that some genuine modification of the situation is becoming increasingly urgent, not solely in the interest of the debtors, but in the interest of the revival of all-around prosperity in this country.

It was significant yesterday that when Thomas W. Lamont, the foremost of the Morgan and Company partners, tendered a suggestion which was accepted as favoring the wiping out of half of the debt, that the audience of bankers manifested their approval. It would be added, however, that the bankers feel extremely doubtful as to whether the public at large are yet prepared to entertain any such view.

The biggest bankers, those controlling the leading institutions, in the largest cities, feel the bitter over the strenuous efforts of anti-bankers located mostly in smaller towns, to lay down the law as to what kind of banking services shall be furnished in large cities. The big bankers contend that the small town bankers cannot possibly tell as accurately as they themselves can, what banking facilities are most needed and best suited for metropolitan cities. The bankers claim that if the law confers franchises to the city in which the parent institution is located, the danger apprehensively foreseen by country bankers cannot possibly spring up.

Th opinion was confidently expressed by various New York bankers Wednesday that the 10,000 banking visitors were enjoying the cordial treatment that the city would be the establishment of a less critical and more friendly mental attitude towards New York through the country from now on. Patos, too, have been taken during the official proceedings to drive home to the minds of the country bankers that New York is not some queer, mysterious, hybrid place, apart from the rest of the country, but that New York, and particularly the management of its financial institutions, are formed very largely by Americans hailing from every corner of the continent, and that New York is what it is because of the indispensable services it renders in keeping the scheme of things going.

It probably will interest you more to read typical statements from representative bankers from different cities than to read any lengthy account of formal proceedings.

The president of the Texas Bankers' Association, M. C. Driscoll, said to me: "Texas has a cotton crop of two-thirds to all as good of normal in quantity and as good in quality as any good, growers have been selling quite freely. By the end of this season, I don't believe there will be a bank in the cotton belt not in first-class shape. All borrowed money is being retired. Although the stock cattle raisers are still struggling, sheep and wool are quite prosperous, the oil industry has been paying well, encouragingly, the lumber industry has been very active, so that altogether things in Texas are getting into very satisfactory conditions."

Said Frank D. Stalder, president of the Indiana National Bank of Indianapolis: "We are beginning to notice some increase in the demand for money. This means that manufacturing and other business is picking up. We have had an excellent corn crop. Wheat has not done so well, but cattle and hogs have brought very satisfactory prices. Country bankers are now paying off their loans. Altogether I feel that things are getting better all around and that the outlook is encouraging."

Buffalo is suffering from a shortage of labor, declared R. J. Griffin, of the Citizens Trust Company of that city. Building is more active than it has been in many years—almost too active, some conservative people are inclined to think. Business in general is good and the banking position is very sound. However, a serious shortage of railway cars has lately been quite annoying handicapping."

Oklahoma, which goes in heavily for wheat and oats in the North cotton in the South and the oil and oil products in the East, "is now recovering fairly fast," said Eugene P. Gurn, Secretary of the Oklahoma Bankers' Association. "We have been taking pains to convince the people of our state that the depression is over and that the time has come to resume normal, healthy activity. Money is now coming forward for investment and other purposes. We have had considerable success in encouraging people to get back on the farms and money has been provided at 4-1-2 per cent to improve lands, increase flocks and herds, purchase labor saving machinery, etc."

The man who will follow John H. Dunder as president of the American Bankers' Association, Walter E. Head, of the Omaha National Bank, says:

"The outlook in Nebraska now is better than it has been at any time in three years."

A. M. Henderson, of the First National Bank of St. Paul, Minn., and President of the Iowa Bankers' Association, also complained of the low prices now prevailing for farm products. Even so, Iowa is on the up-grade. As for other bankers, he paid a tribute to the excellent emergency services rendered by the war finance corporation.

Edward L. Robinson, of the Citizens Savings Bank of Baltimore, was definitely more optimistic. So, too, were J. L. Preston, President of the Farmers' National Bank of Chattanooga, Tenn., and J. K. Newman, New Orleans financier.

"The big events of today's program are the address to be delivered by Reginald McKenna, former head of the British treasury and now head of the largest bank in the world. I hear that he has prepared his speech with trepidation."

arms with a battle cry of fighting to the last man to retain their present hold on what was formerly Turkey in Europe.

GREECE PROTESTING
ATHENS.—(United Press).—The torch of war was carried through the streets of Athens today, as volunteers of all ages and professions, answering a call to arms to fight to "save Thrace for Greece."

Indignation, stirred by fanatical speakers, ran high upon reports that the Mudania conference had decided upon Greek evacuation of Thrace and the handing over of a portion of Europe to the Turks.

A report spread that a Macedonian regiment against a hurried evacuation of troops in Asia Minor. It was also reported that Venizelos had counselled the Greek cabinet not to agree to evacuation of Thrace. Neither of these reports was confirmed.

FIRE ON U. S. SHIP

WASHINGTON.—(Associated Press).—The report that an American destroyer was torpedoed by the Turkish submarine U-107, off the coast of Smyrna, first carried in a Reuters dispatch from Athens, is repeated in a dispatch from Athens received today by the Greek legation. The legation dispatch gave no details.

Neither the navy nor the state departments today had any confirmation of the reported attack.

REVIEWERS' FURY

PARIS.—(Associated Press).—The joint committee of the Anglo-American Press Association of Paris and the International Association of Journalists accredited to the league of nations have called Gen. Gouraud to account for alleged discrimination against the English and American pressmen.

The newspaper men were forbidden to go to the conference at Mudania. It was pointed out, while it was understood the correspondents of other nationalities were allowed to proceed there to report the conference.

CAVALRY ON MOVE

CONSTANTINOPLE.—(United Press).—Turkish cavalry has just entered the city of Kandra adjacent to the land neutral zone, and the move is regarded with alarm here as constituting a menace to Constantinople. It is considered that Kemal has ordered the move to intimidate the allies.

COAL DEALERS GO ON STRIKE

Demand Ohio Fair Price at Mines Before Buying

COLUMBUS.—(United Press).—A number of Columbus retail coal dealers, according to a statement issued by the local coal union, have informed administrator Neal of their intention to buy no more Ohio coal until the fair price has become effective or wholesalers come down voluntarily to the fair price level.

Figures given the fuel administrators, it was claimed, show prices they have been paying to be greatly in excess of the state fixed prices announced Tuesday. Early in September, it was declared, prices were as high as $7 a ton and $5.75 a ton, was demanded at the time the fuel control bill was enacted, as compared to the fair prices of from $3.50 to $4.85.

The fuel administration pointed out the new prices, when they become effective October 10, will represent therefore a reduction of as much as 30 to 41 per cent.

Unconfirmed reports were current today that the fuel administration's prices are to be attacked in court by a group of Columbus attorneys on the ground that they are too high.

CITY DEFICIT UP TO VOTERS

Citizens to be Called Upon to Solve Financial Problem

TAX INCREASE IS ASKED

Fund Shortage Blamed on Failures of Past Years

Taxes of bonds for the payment of the current operating expenses of the city will be put squarely before the voters at the November election, the city commission decided at a special meeting Wednesday evening.

With a $100,000 deficit facing the city for next year, as a result of the decline in receipts from taxes from $142,000 in 1922 to $110,000 or less in 1923, such a decision became imperative.

An additional two mill levy, outside of all tax limitations, will be asked of the voters. This will provide the amount necessary to pay all obligations as they come due. Sixty per cent of the voters must approve the measure however.

"This will give the stockholders of the city a chance to say whether the city commission will be given funds with which to operate the city or whether operations shall be curtailed," Commissioner Ellis Jones said following the meeting.

"We have done everything in our power to keep the city going," Jones said, "but the weight of five years of inadequate receipts has brought things to a breaking point and we must go to the voters for our instructions."

Other members of the commission are in accord with the statement by Jones. Either funds must be provided or operations cut to a minimum. This may mean the cutting down of the police and fire departments to but a fraction of their present size.

Deficiency bonds can be issued for certain portions of the deficit but this in itself is not a permanent solution. The city must have a plan for raising funds to meet its obligations.

Approximately $15,000 will be required for sinking fund and interest on the $60,000 bonds which will be necessary this year, it is believed. On the $100,000 bonds which would have to be issued next year the charges would be $25,000.

This would make a huge hole in the money received from taxes and would make more bonds necessary in each succeeding year. Evan O. Sellers, city auditor, points out.

Commissioners have decided the taxpayers will save by paying as they go rather than deferring the charges to future years, especially as the city is growing and needs are constantly increasing.

CAMPAIN PLANNED

An extensive speaking campaign whereby the voters will be told the city's needs and the reasons why the additional levy should be approved is being planned by the city officials.

Principles of good business which demand that current expenses be met by current revenues and improvements by long time obligations will be stressed during the campaign, it was agreed.

Should the voters decide against the measure, the city's operation next year will be handicapped and necessary work stopped entirely. Earl Rehn, city commissioner, said.

Baby Boy Turns To Girl; Mother Refuses Infant

JERSEY CITY, N. J.—Solomon only had to give a baby to one of two women, Judge Sullivan has to find out how Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rich's baby boy turned out to be a girl.

When Mrs. Rich's child was born in a local hospital, a few days ago, the attending physician told her it was a boy. Later decision was reversed and the nurses informed her the child was a girl.

Now Mrs. Rich believes the child hospital authorities are trying to persuade her to take it not her own. She refused the baby and it was taken to a municipal institution. The courts have been appealed to to decide.

BANKERS PREDICT BETTER TIMES

Air of Confidence Shown at New York Meet

NEW YORK.—(United Press).—"Better times" for American business are "just ahead" in the opinion of representative bankers here for the convention of the American Bankers' Association.

An air of confidence and optimism is apparent among the financial leaders.

The better is frequently expressed that with the industries of the nation no longer hampered by action wide strikes and with business conditions continuing their steady progress toward normal, the country is nearing its most prosperous period since the days of wartime inflation.

Bankers from the middle west say that the situation in the great agricultural region which was hit hardest by the post-war deflation, is slowly but steadily improving. They point out that the federal government thru the agencies of the farm loan board, the war finance corporation and the federal reserve bank has enabled the banks to extend loans to farmers who were caught in financial difficulties because of declining prices. Many of the midwest bankers, however, believe freight rates on farm products should be reduced further.

Bankers from the manufacturing regions point out that the twin rail and coal strikes tended to halt production and this will result in great activity during the winter months.

400 SAVED FROM WATERY GRAVE

Helpless Liner Averts Collision by Less Than Boat Length

NEW YORK.—(United Press).—Saved from collision in mid-ocean with another ten thousand ton Atlantic liner, the Red Star liner Gothland safely brought 400 passengers into port who were Wednesday morning told of their thrilling experiences in a 42 hour hurricane during which the ship rolled helpless at the mercy of the sea. It was the same hurricane which damaged the Aquitania.

Waves 45 to 50 feet high swept the decks of the Gothland and carried away the wireless and deck equipment.

While the Gothland pitched helplessly upon the fifty foot waves the Atlantic transport liner Menominee was sighted less than a mile away and bearing down upon the Gothland. Immense waves and blinding spray had prevented the lookouts from sighting each other before.

Oil was poured on the water and the starboard engines of the Gothland swung it out of the course of the drifting Menominee. The two passed less than 200 feet apart.

BILLIONS LOST IN GERMAN MARKS

U. S. Gamblers Buy Teuton Notes Despite Bankers' Warnings

LOSSES ARE DIFFUSED

Credit Problem Averted by Spread of Purchases

(BY EDWARD M. THIERRY)
NEW YORK.—(Special.)—Gambling in German marks has cost Americans from a billion to two billion dollars.

People are still buying marks and other foreign paper "money," but the big flood of speculation suddenly stopped a few weeks ago. Bankers report that buying was going on in large amounts in spite of their warnings that purchase of German marks was a speculation and not an investment. It is believed that even the widest speculators have now reached the conclusion that the bubble has burst, wiping out dreams of immense profits.

"Estimate of the amount of American money spent for marks can be made better in Germany than in this country," said Dr. B. M. Anderson, Jr., economist of the Chase National Bank. "I have seen estimates ranging from $1,000,000,000 to $2,000,000,000. Personally I wouldn't know how to guess."

LOSSES ARE LARGE
"Speculation in German marks has been a national loss, but it is so diffused that no credit problem has been created. I know of no institution or individual suffering a serious loss."

"The most serious thing about it is the demoralization of Germany which the crash in marks indicates. Demoralization in Germany is most serious of course for her closer neighbors—France, Great Britain, Holland, Belgium and the Scandinavian countries—but it is very bad for the United States also. Germany has been one of our best customers and a prosperous Germany is needed to balance the world's economic life."

Dr. Anderson pointed out that while Germany as a whole has suffered very greatly in the financial demoralization, a good many individual German speculators have piled up immense profits. Foreseeing the decline in the mark, they borrowed marks on a great scale and then used them to buy foreign currencies and dollars, etc., etc., or to buy goods and common stock of corporations, and other things whose value would not decline with the mark.

After the fall of the mark these speculators could sell a small part of their purchase for enough marks to pay back their debts, retaining the greater part of the real values they had purchased. Hugo Stinnes is supposed to have built up much of his great fortune by this method.

Other countries have planned to buy German marks. Spain is said to have put 1,000,000,000 pesetas into marks by the end of 1920.

As recently as last week an Italian put $140 into German marks at the rate of 7 cents a mark, receiving 200,000 marks (which before the war were worth $50,000). At the New York bank where he bought them he was warned that he might lose his $140.

"Ah! I may make a million," EVERHEDY, 2ND.

A small New York hotel has a bell boy, an elevator operator and a doorman who own several million Polish marks, a million German marks, and several hundred thousand French francs and Italian lire.

Meanwhile reports from Germany say that women there are protecting their savings by putting doubtful paper money into silk stockings—something they can sell later.

How widespread American speculation in German marks has become is indicated by a letter received by a New York bank from a small banker in Texas asking whether marks were a "good investment." He was told they were a "long shot gamble."

Bankers believe, granting the impossibility of a recovery in German marks, that they will either go so low that they will cease to be used as a means of barter, or else there will be official repudiation.

In either case American speculators will have one or two billion dollars worth of "wallpaper" on their hands.

Kidney and Bladder Troubles Conquered or Money Back

For 40 years, said Dr. Carey, I have been prescribing my prescription No. 777 (known for years as Marshbrook) for kidney and bladder sickness and now that I have retired from active practice I have made arrangements with leading druggists to dispense this wonderful prescription at a moderate price and the money back if dissatisfied plan.

Beware of kidney disease—thousands die of it every year who ought to be cured. Watch the warning signs and health. Watch the symptoms. If you have specks floating before the eyes, dizzy eyes, clammy feet, or moist palms, backache or sideache, you ought to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's famous prescription at once.

It has wonderfully benefited tens of thousands of cases of kidney and bladder troubles and the medicine you can always depend upon. Results are guaranteed.

NOTE—Dr. Daniel G. Carey was a practicing physician for many years and his great prescription No. 777 aided thousands of sufferers from kidney and bladder troubles. Hereafter you can always get this effective prescription in both liquid and tablet form at Hunter's 3 Stores, Thompson's 3 Drug Stores and all reliable pharmacists the country over.—Adv.

ATTEMPT TO SET RECORD WILL BE MADE BY FLIERS ON CROSS-COUNTRY TRIP

LOS ANGELES, CALIF.—(Associated Press).—The army dirigible C-2, which recently flew from Langley Field, Newport News, Va., to Ross Field, Arcadia, Calif., near Los Angeles will attempt to set a home record for a cross-country trip west, according to Major W. A. Strauss, commanding.

Major Strauss, recalling that nine days was required for the westward flight, which was accomplished in 66 hours and 10 minutes elapsed time, said an effort would be made on the journey east to lower the actual flying time by at least ten hours.

Major Strauss definitely confirmed previous statements that the C-2 would start its trip homeward from Ross Field the night of next Monday October 9. The itinerary has not been completed.

EMBARGO ALTERED

Permits Now Necessary for Shipments to Lake Ports

Modification of the embargo placed recently on shipments of coal to lake ports has been made by the B. & O. railroad, it was learned here Thursday.

Reports of a general cancellation of all restrictions on shipments have not been received by L. B. Colbert, freight agent here. Change in the lake port coal shipment embargo has been the only order received in Lima since all previous embargoes were lifted some days ago, he said.

Under present arrangements, shipments of coal to lake ports can be made over the B. & O. by securing a permit from H. M. Griggs, manager of the coal and ore exchange Colbert declared.

The change in the embargo has little effect on the relieved coal situation in this state it is understood. Shipments to lake ports are allowed only when necessary.

BOYCOTT ON SPEED TRAP PLANNED

Auto Club Preparing to Combat Lakeview Problem

TOWNSHIP OFFICIALS BLAMED

Hartline Calls Meeting With Mayor of Village

A boycott of Lakeview because of the speed-traps operated outside of the village by township officials, is planned by the Lima Automobile club.

Better citizens of Lakeview are becoming acquainted with the situation and are aroused. They want the township to stop the traps, which means thousands of dollars to the village each summer, but are powerless to act.

A conference between automobile club officials and the Mayor of Lakeview Wednesday night was called by Joe Hartline, president for the purpose of talking the matter over.

The mayor stated that it was township and village officials who are persecuting motorists. Tourists passing thru from other states are prey for constables.

PLAN REMEDIES
Plans of auto club for alleviating the speed trap menace include: Raising tourists and others away from Lakeview.

Construction of a new road around the other side of the lake to reach Russell's Point and Orchard Island.

Advertisement of the speed trap thru the Ohio State Automobile Association.

Joint action and pressure on Logan-co and state officials to stop the traps.

"If we can keep people away from Lakeview," declared Hartline, "the speed trap will lack business. Also business men of the town may be aroused to take action when they find they are losing money they might just as well be making."

The club has appealed the case of Nathan Coon to Logan-co common pleas court, but the trial has not been set.

MAN'S RIVAL

A SHIPMENT of iron telegraph poles goes to South Africa. Wood is abundant and cheaper, but it would be quickly destroyed by the powerful jaws of the terrible White Ants. In Ceylon Black Army Ants march on the warpath. A scientist counts them, finds 300,000 soldiers in one army, marching in companies, about 20 abreast, with officers running up and down the line and keeping order. Let a horse or man break a leg and fall in the path of the Army Ants, and in a few hours only a skeleton is left.

THOMSON tells about the Burying Beetles. When a corpse is to be buried, one of these insect grave-diggers rounds up a squad of helpers instead of tackling the job alone. Among locusts the wingless young form a living bridge over a stream until their brothers and sisters cross overhead. They change places, relieving the bridgers when fatigued, so that few drown.

Certain bees remain in the hive as housekeepers, receive honey as workers bring it in, then store it in the comb-cells. Other bees do their share by standing patiently, fanning the air with their wings to ventilate the hive.

ALL these manifestations of "mutual aid" or the "social instinct" have the rudiments of definite civilizations. While insects work by instinct and man by intelligence, the two methods are strikingly similar. Man calls it instinct largely because it does not please his vanity to credit any creature except himself with intelligence.

If the insects are intelligent and can communicate with each other, no doubt they have observed the civilization of man and contemptuously referred to it as "instinct."

We are important on earth, that's true. But we are only a part of a far more important system of nature. Each thing that lives must exist with a definite purpose.

FLYING IN AMERICA

COMMERCIAL airplanes in the United States are now covering a mileage of 7,000,000 miles a year and carrying 250,000 people.

Flying, as a business proposition for profit, is being carried on in 34 states. Commercial air companies number 125 and are using 1200 different aircraft.

How much is this accomplishment ahead of the opinion you had formed about the flying situation?

GERMAN MARKS

GERMAN commerce and industry have, during the past few years, lived largely on the losses in marks incurred by foreigners, which became profits to Germany.

This is a verbatim quotation, direct from Germany, as printed in the Allgemeine Zeitung.

It looks as if the "prosperity boom" in Germany has been largely the spending of money paid by speculators in marks.

1640

We hundred and eighty-two years ago this month, in the year 1640, wheat sold in England for the equivalent of $1.14 a bushel in modern American money. Compare with the price of wheat today, then pass the word on to the wise boy who says "prices may drop but they never go back to where they were."

To verify this and other low prices of 1640, read the reports written by Lord Chief Justice Hale after his researches.

In England when wheat was selling for $1.14 a bushel, low-grade stockings cost 28 cents a pair and a low-scale cost of living for an average family of six was $2.50 a week.

They got along with $2.50 because they lived simply, bought few things, never had luxuries. Today the standard of living is higher because "there's more goods to be divided." Big production, not prices, is what makes real prosperity.

An English law, passed in 1643, decreed that "no servant in husbandry, nor common laborer, nor servant to any artificer shall use or wear in their clothing any cloth above two shillings (about 49 cents) the broad yard."

FROZEN

REFRESHING to turn from the headache news and find an interesting item like this:

In Grasshopper Glacier, Yellowstone Park, scientists find millions of insects frozen deeply in the ice, perfectly preserved. They belong to no known species. Except for the finding of mastodons in the ice Cape of northern Siberia, this is the only case of the flesh of prehistoric creatures being preserved into our time. The mastodons were refrigerated in such an excellent condition that the natives ate them.

COLORS

DO you want a purple tree on your lawn? Or a blue or red? A German chemist perfects a process by which a tree, while growing, can be transformed into any of these three colors. His method is to feed liquid dyes to the roots. They rise thru the sap cells and color the leaves.

Rather a foolish thing to start circulating in a world quick to adopt the atrocious. Green is the most beautiful color, also most useful to the eyes. That's why nature uses it in grass, leaves and nearly all vegetation. Imagine the country an endless mass of purple, blue or red!

DIPLOMACY

When Armageddon ended, we sighed, "The Turk is thru. We've driven out of Europe that bloody-handed crew. Whose massacres and slaughters once sickened all the world. The ancient Moslem menace afar from us is hurled! No longer shall our history with Turkish deeds be black!" But—the diplomats got busy, and now the Turk is back!

The fine old-fashioned diplomats who brought about the war. Who brewed the European mess which we are paying for; Who caused some twenty million deaths, who plunged the world in flame— With just the same old box of tricks they play the same old game. We thought the war had freed us from the ugly Moslem pack. But the diplomats got busy—and now the Turk is back!

The diplomats, they never learn, they never seem to change. They play the same old chessmen which they shift and rearrange.

They scheme and plot and gamble with the destinies of men. And when they've ruined half the world they start to plot again. Suave and sly and smooth of speech, they're ruled by outworn rules. They look like learned gentlemen but act like knaves and fools. Lord save us from the diplomats, there's war along their track. The clever, stupid diplomats who brought the Moslem back! TOOK 3 TO HOLD HIM IN BED

Had Awful Stomach Pains and Was Told It Would be the End of Him

RELIEVED BY PLANT JUICE

"I was flat on my back in bed for over a month because of my stomach trouble and was told that I could not live but your remedy, Plant Juice, brought me right out and I am now feeling like an entirely different man."

HENRY W. TERRY

These were the words of Mr. Henry W. Terry, of 2222 Morton Avenue, New Albany, Ind., in an interview with "The Lima News" Man when he was at that city recently. The remedy, Plant Juice, is now being introduced in Lima at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, by The Plant Juice Man in person.

"I first began to suffer with my stomach about three years ago," Mr. Terry continued, "and was told that my trouble was caused by ulcers and that I was in danger of having a cancer in my stomach. I lost weight and couldn't do any work and had to give up my work for three months. All I could eat was milk and light cereals. I suffered all the time from pains in my stomach and never felt well or strong and finally I got down in bed and lay there, flat on my back, for over a month. I was told that I could not live and suffered such intense pain at times that it took three people to hold me down."

"The benefit Plant Juice brought me was far better than I ever expected. I can eat almost anything I care for now without any bad after effects and I feel so well that I can do a hard day's work and not feel tired out afterward. I really feel like a different man—feel better than I have for a long time—and I certainly do not hesitate to make this statement and recommend Plant Juice to everybody."

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Plant Juice is sold also in Lima at Hunter's drug store at Main and Wayne streets and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.

THE FLAMING JEWEL

By ROBERT W. CHAMBERS

BEGIN HERE TODAY

The lure of the flaming jewel, that priceless gem stolen from the royal treasury of the ESTHONIA, has drawn a group of daring and adventurous spirits to the "hell kitchen" of the Adirondacks the disreputable hotel.

With CLINCH lived a life of crime sustained by the influence over him was the subtle step-daughter.

ADAM SMITH was the sole possessor of the jewel and to do that he would go to the end of the earth.

CLINCH, known to Clinchville DARRAGH, known to Clinchville SMITH, who was sworn to restore the jewel to the crown.

CLINCH, who had been taken by SMITH, the great international thief.

GO ON WITH THE STORY

The Ruling Passion CHAPTER I

Understand how Jose Quintana had slipped thru the Secret Service, of spread for him at every turn.

The United States authorities did not know why Quintana had come to America. They realized merely that he arrived for no good purpose; and they had meant to arrest and hold him for extradition if requested for deportation as an undesirable alien anyway.

Only two men in America knew that Quintana had come to the United States for the purpose of recovering the famous "Flaming Jewel" stolen by him from the Grand Duchess Theodorica of Esthonia, and stolen from Quintana, in turn, by a private soldier in an American Forestry Regiment, on duty in Paris. This soldier's name, probably was Michael Clinch.

One of the men who knew why Quintana came to America was James D. Smith, recently of the military intelligence, but now passing as a hold up man under the name of Adam Smith, and actually in the employ of Clinch at his disreputable hotel at Star Pond in the North Woods.

The other man who knew why Quintana had come to America was Emanuel Sird, a Levantine diamond thief of New York, Quintana's agent in America.

On the October days passed without any report of Quintana's decision Darragh known as Hal Smith at Clinch's dump, began to suspect that Quintana had already slipped into America thru the meshes of the police.

If so this desperate international criminal could be expected at Clinch's dump, or, if not, at the dump of Emanuel Sird, or at Hal Smith, whose duty was to supply Clinch's with "mountain beef"—or deer taken illegally—made it convenient to prowl every day in the vicinity of the Ghost Lake Road.

He was perfectly familiar with Emanuel Sird's squat features and parrot nose, having robbed Mr. Sird of Quintana's cipher and of $4000 at pistol point. And one morning, while roving around the guide's quarters at Ghost Lake Inn, Smith beheld Sird himself on the hotel veranda, in company with five strangers of foreign aspect.

During the midday dinner Smith, on pretense of inquiring for a guide's license, got a look at the inn ledger. Sird's signature was on it, followed by the names of Henri Piquet, Nicholas Salar, Victor Georgiadis, Harry Beck, and Jose Sanchez. And Smith went back thru the wilderness to Star Pond, convinced that one of these gentlemen was Quintana, and the remainder, Quintana's gaggle, and that they were here to do murder if necessary in their remorseless quest of "The Flaming Jewel." Two million dollars once had been offered for the jewel, and had been fixed.

CHAPTER II

Clinch's dump was the disposal plant in which collected the human sewage of the wilderness.

It being Saturday, the scum of the North Woods was gathered at the Star Pond resort. A venison and chicken supper was promised—and a dance if any women appeared.

Jake Kloon had run in some Canadian hootch; Darragh, alias Hal Smith, contributed two fat deer and Clinch cooked them. By 10 o'clock that morning many of the men were growing noisy; some were already drunk by noon. Shortly after midday dinner the first fight started—extinguished only after Clinch had beaten several of the backwoods aristocracy insensible.

Towering amid the wreck of battle, his light gray eyes glittered, Clinch dominated, swinging his iron fist.

When the combat ended and the fallen lay starkly where they fell, Clinch said in his pleasant, level voice:

"Take them out, and stick their heads in the pond. And don't go for to get me mad, boys, or I'm liable to act up rough."

They bore forth the sleepers for immersion in Star Pond. Clinch relighted his cigar and repeated the rulings which had caused the fracas:

"You gotta play square cards here or you don't play none in my house. No living thumb-nail can pick no cards in my place and get away with it. Three kings and two trys is better than three chickens and two eggs. If you don't like it, g'wan home."

He went out in his shirt sleeves to see how the knock-outs were reviving, and met Hal Smith returning from the pond, who reported progress toward consciousness. They walked back to the "hotel" together.

"Say, young fella," said Clinch in his soft, agreeable way, "you want to keep your eye peeled tonight?"

"Well, there'll be a lot o' folks here. There'll be strangers, too. Don't forget the State Troopers are looking for you."

They had paused on the rough veranda in the hot October sunshine. "Mike," suggested Smith carelessly, "wouldn't it pay you better to go straight?"

Clinch's small gray eyes, which had been roaming over the prospect of lake and forest, focused on Smith's smiling features.

"What's that to you?" he asked.

"I'll be out of a job," remarked Smith, laughing. "If they ever land you."

Clinch's level gaze measured him; his mind was busy measuring him, too.

"Who the hell are you, anyway?" he asked. "I don't know. You stick up a man on the Ghost Lake Road and hide out here when the State Troopers come after you. And now you ask me if it pays better to go straight. Why didn't you go straight if you think it pays?"

"I haven't a daughter to worry about," explained Smith. "If they get me it won't hurt anybody else."

A dull red tinge came out under Clinch's tan.

"Who asked you to worry about me?"

"She's a fine girl, that's all." Clinch's steely glare measured the young man.

"You are trying to make up to her?" he inquired gently.

"No. She has no use for me."

Clinch reflected, his cold tiger-gaze still fastened on Smith.

"You're right," he said after a moment. "Eve is a good girl. Some day I'll make a lady of her."

"She is one, Clinch."

At that Clinch reddened heavily—the first finer emotion ever betrayed before Smith. He did not say anything for a few moments, but his grim mouth worked. Finally: "I guess you were a gentleman once before you went crooked, Hal," he said. "You act up like you once was. Say, there's only one thing on God's earth I care about. You've guessed it, too." He was off again upon his ruling passion.

"Eve," nodded Smith.

"Sure. She isn't my flesh and blood. But it seems like she's more. I want she should be a lady. It's all I want. That damned millionaire Harrod bust me. But he couldn't stop me giving Eve her schooling. And now all I'm livin' for is to be fixed so's to give her money to go to the city like a lady. I don't care how I make money, all I want is to make it. And I'm a going to."

Smith nodded again.

Clinch, now obsessed by his monomania, went on with an oath: "I can't make no money on the level after what Harrod done to me. And I gotta fix up Eve. What the hell do you mean by asking me would it pay me to travel straight I dunno."

"I was only thinking of Eve. A lady isn't supposed to have a crook for a father."

Clinch's gray eyes blazed for a moment, then their menacing glare dulled, died out into wintry fixity.

"I wasn't born a crook," he said. "I ain't got no choice. And don't worry, young fella; they ain't a-going to get me."

"You can't go on beating the same forever, Clinch."

"I'm beating it—," he hesitated—"and it won't be so long, neither, before I turn over enough to let Eve live in the city like any lady, with her automobile and her own butler and all her swell friends, in a big house like she is educated for."

He broke off abruptly as a procession approached from the lake, escorting the battered gentry who now were able to wabble a little.

One of them, a fox-faced trap thief named Earl Leverett, slunk past by as though expecting another kick from Clinch.

"G'wan inside, Earl, and act up tight," said Clinch pleasantly. "You oughter have more sense than to start a fight in my place—you and Sid Hone and Harvey Chase G'wan in and behave."

He and Smith followed the procession of damaged ones into the house.

The big unpainted room where a bar had once been was blue with cheap cigar smoke; the air reeked with the stench of beer and spirits. A score or more shambling forest louts in their dingy Saturday finery were gathered there playing cards, shooting craps, lolling around tables and titling stopping glasses at one another.

Heavy pleasantries were exchanged with the victims of Clinch's ponderous fists as they re-entered the room from which they had been borne so recently, feet first.

"Now, boys," said Clinch kindly, "act up like swell gents and behave friendly. And if any ladies come in for the chicken supper, why, go ahead, we'll have a dance!"

TWINS HUNT QUEEN'S STOLEN CAR

By Olive Roberts Barton

"That's nice, my dear, thank you," smiled the Fairy Queen.

Nancy and Nick appeared at once at the Fairy Queen's palace when they heard she wished them to hunt for her lost automobile.

"My dear children," she said, kindly. "You found my lost wags so quickly that I am sure you will discover my automobile just as soon."

"I do need it so! Not that my wings won't take me anywhere—it isn't that at all! It's just that, even if I am a fairy, I like to ride as well as anybody."

"Do you know who took it?" asked Nick.

"Sh!" whispered Her Royal Highness, looking cautiously around. "I'm afraid somebody will hear."

"Yes, I know, but it's a secret. It was Light Fingers. He steals everything he gets his hands on. He's far worse than Flap-Doodle."

"Of course, poor thing," sighed the Fairy Queen. "I suppose he can't help it. He has long thin fingers and he says they take things without his knowing it."

"The trouble is," she went on, "I don't think that Light Fingers stole my automobile for himself. He's so smart the other wicked fairies have him to do things for them."

"Twelve Toes, the sorcerer; Eena Meena, the Magician, and Tricky Trix, the Wizard, all employ him. I don't know who has my automobile now."

"Well, don't you worry," said Nancy promptly. "We'll start at once if you give us the Magical Green Shoes again."

"That's nice dear, thank you," smiled the Queen, calling to some of her councilors to bring the little shoes that had taken the Twins on so many adventures.

The children slipped them on and

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided after many years of ceaseless aches that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, are dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery which he called Allenbu, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let everyone know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allenbu with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. Green's Public Drug Store can supply you.—Adv.

Building race-tested tires for everyday use

Barney Oldfield, seeking ways to make racing safer, saw the need of more trustworthy tires.

Testing tires for years on his own cars in hundreds of races, he developed a construction that virtually eliminated the dangers from tire failures.

It was then he realized the importance of his achievement to the public. Not only were Oldfield-built tires more trustworthy, but they gave longer mileage in everyday use.

Oldfield Tires are the race-tested tires. The great drivers entrust their lives and success to Oldfield performance.

For three years past the big races—at Indianapolis, Uniontown, San Francisco and elsewhere have been triumphs for Oldfield trustworthiness.

Used on your own car, Oldfield Cords will give service equally reliable and mileage that will make you a permanent Oldfield customer.

This mileage and service is emphasized by the remarkably low prices now in effect. Oldfields actually cost you less today than ever in the past. Thousands of dealers everywhere enable you to get these values.

MANY RECORDS FALL DURING 1922

THE 1922 baseball season, just closed, stands out as one of the most remarkable in major league history.

The unexpected has happened, records have been broken, thrills before have been produced.

The American League pennant winner was not decided until a day before the close of the season.

Third place in the American League race, which carries with it a juicy cut in the world series, also hung in the balance until a day before the close of the race.

Some idea of the battle for third place which was won by Detroit can be gleaned from the fact that

Detroit finished one game ahead of Cleveland, the fourth place team, and the Indians were just one game in advance of Chicago.

In the National League, second and third place positions in the race were not decided until the final day of the season.

Cincinnati, by winning a double header from Pittsburgh, took second place from that club. An even split would have insured the Pittsburgh club the runner-up position. St. Louis, by defeating Chicago, worked itself into a tie with Pittsburgh for third place honors.

NEW HOMER
The home-run habit, started two years back, continued thruout the 1922 season. As a result, home runs were shattered.

Last season the American League teams made 477 home runs, the National 500, a total of 977 circuit outs.

In the campaign just closed the National League made 529 homers the American 525, a total of 1054.

A new home-run king was crowned in the person of Rogers Hornsby. With 43 home runs to his credit he surpassed the erstwhile "Sultan of Swat," Babe Ruth. Last season Hornsby made only 21 home runs.

RUTH NOSED OUT

In the American League, Ken Williams of St. Louis and Tilly Walker of Philadelphia nosed out Babe Ruth. A late start of eight weeks cut Ruth's figure to 35 for the season. Williams made 37, Walker 37.

Hornsby, in making 42 home runs, set a new National League figure. In 1921 Ed Williamson made 27 home runs. That mark has stood the test of all the great hitters until Hornsby came thru.

Ken Williams of the Browns and Walter Hestine of the Phillies, in making three home runs in one game pulled the unusual.

Walker of the Athletics and Hornsby of the St. Louis Cardinals on five occasions during the season, made two home runs in a game.

The winning of 27 games by Eddie Rummel, with the Athletics, stands out as one of the greatest pitching performances in years. The Athletics won 65 games, Rummel winning nearly half of them.

Tr Cobb as usual, played a prominent part in the unusual happenings of 1922.

Three major league batting records were tied by Cobb.

COBB EQUALS RECORD

By batting better than .300, Cobb equaled the record of Hans Wagner, who, for 17 seasons, topped that figure.

In making more than 200 base hits, he equaled the record of Willie Keeler, who, for eight seasons, beat that mark.

By batting better than .400, Cobb equaled the feat of Jesse Burkett, who, for three seasons, recorded a .400 or better average.

Cobb's record, in a way, is more remarkable than Burkett's, since the foul strike rule was not in effect when Burkett was in the game. However, the ball today is much livelier than the one Burkett hit at.

Rogers Hornsby, by getting three hits in five times at bat in the last game, finished the season a trifle better than 400.

Not since 1890 has any National League player batted over .400. In that year Ed Delehanty with the Philadelphia Nationals had a mark of .405.

HARDING YANK FAN

WASHINGTON—President Harding like other Yankee fans was hoping for better luck for his favorites in the world series today. The president received a play by play account of the first game by the United Press yesterday. Even though he went out during the game for a round of golf, he kept in touch with the White House telegraph room by telephone.

DAVE TO RETURN

ST. LOUIS—Dave Danforth, former pitcher for the St. Louis Browns, who was transferred to the Tulsa team of Western League, after he had been continually charged by the opposing clubs of the American League with "doctoring" the ball, has developed a curve ball and expects to return to the local Americans next year, according to word received here from Tulsa.

GIRL SLUGGER OUTBATS RUTH

WASHINGTON, Mo.—A member of the girls' baseball team here can outbat Babe Ruth.

She is Mrs. Rose Laumann, star hitter of the county league of feminine ball tossers. Here friends say that she can spot the Yankee slugger, Kenny Williams and the rest of the big league fence busters to a couple of homers each game and beat them out easy. As proof of her prowess they point to her feat in a recent games against the girls' team from New Haven when she clouted out five home runs.

Walloping Rose made eight hits in nine times at bat and scored seven runs. Her team won by a score of 50 to 14. The game was called at the end of the seventh inning because the New Haven outfielders were tired retrieving her long hits.

Miss Laumann is a right-handed batter and swings at the ball like a man. Her home runs were all into left field. As this field slopes it took three fielders to relay the ball, once it got by them. By the time they recovered their breaths and the ball, Rose was back on the bench waiting for another chance to hit a homer.

VAN WERT IS SET

VAN WERT — Coach Moore's high school football team is rapidly rounding into shape and recovering from the slump in morale occasioned by its defeat Saturday at Hicksville. In this respect it is like the Lima Central eleven, which Van Wert will meet Saturday at Lima. Strengthening of the Van Wert line is Moore's chief aim. The team lost its first game because the opponents had the fastest line.

The Lima game will decide positions for the Van Wert players. No definite selections have yet been made by Moore.

O'DONNELL WINS

LORAIN — Charley O'Donnell, Cleveland lightweight, won the newspaper decision over Alex Hart in 10 rounds.

MUTT AND JEFF—WELL, WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE?

By BUD FISHER

BRINGING UP FATHER

—BY McMANUS

SHORT SHAVINGS

A. C. Calacab, W. Highest, politician, says that two acquaintances visited Pittsburgh.

They wanted to take a sight-seeing trip thru town on the trolley cars. They asked the conductor how much the fare was and were told it was three tickets for 20 cents.

"Well, how will I do this?" said the mother. "I just need four."

The conductor said, "Drop two in the box now to cover the riding trip and drop the third in the box with a dime coming back. Or else purchase three more tickets on the way back. Then you can take another ride while your daughter waits for you at Union Station."

PYORRHEA

Try this New Treatment for Pyorrhea, Bleeding, Receding Gums with Loose Teeth—at Our Expense.

Broad minded doctors and dentists who have given MOAVA DENTAL CREAM—a highly concentrated formula for the treatment of Pyorrhea—a trial are astonished at the rapid results obtained.

It seems almost unbelievable but it is a fact nevertheless that a few treatments over a period of one or two days makes the gums feel better and reduces the soreness. Used faithfully for one week, a decided improvement is seen. Continue for a few weeks until the gums are healthy, the soreness and soreness all gone and the teeth are firm and immovable.

All druggists who sell MOAVA TOOTH PASTE are authorized to return the purchase price to anyone who cannot see a decided improvement after its use. Green's Public Drug Store, Hunter's 3 Stores can supply you.

Mrs. Linton Tells How Helpful Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is at This Period

Denver, Colorado.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for seven years and I cannot tell you the good it has done me. It is good for young and old and I always keep a bottle of it in the house, for I am at that time of life when it calls for Lydia E. Pinkham's help. My husband saw your ad. in the papers and said, 'You have taken everything you can think of, now I want you to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound!' So I let him get it, and I soon felt better and he told me 'I want you to take about six bottles.' So I did and I keep house and do all my own work and work out by the day and feel fine now. I tell every one about the Vegetable Compound, for so many of my friends thought I would not get well."—Mrs. R. J. LINTON, 1850 West 33d Avenue, Denver, Colorado.

After reading letters like the above, and we are constantly publishing them, why should any woman hesitate to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound if she is in need of help? It brings relief where other medicines fail.
